

The Queenslander Pictorial.

A WET ANZAC DAY IN BRIISBANE

Returned soldiers marching off in procession from Albert Square
after the ANZAC Day observance
by the Governor.

Recipients of medals on ANZAC Day.

© 1914, The Queensland Pictorial.

BACK FROM THE WARS.

Battleships arrive at Charleston Bay, South Carolina, in quarantine.

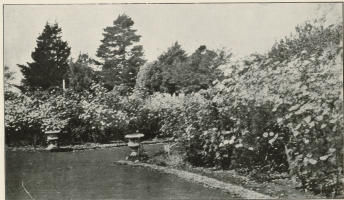

Arrival of the South Carolina.

The Arizona at anchor.

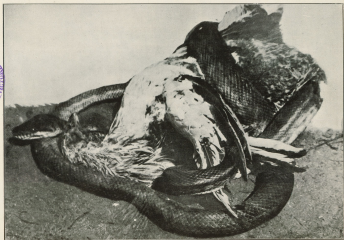

When do we get off? Arizona men are glad to be in home waters.

THE GARDEN PATH LEADING TO THE GARDEN HOUSE.

—C. R. Callahan photo.

IN THE VILLAGE.—A QUAIL (PHOTOGRAPHED).
A snake about caught in the act of swallowing a quail.

—Franklin H. H. photo.

AN MEMORY OF ANZAC

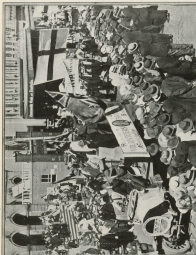

品

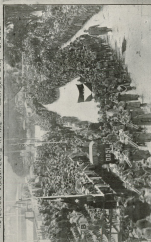

St George's Day Memorial Parade. The Cross of St. George representing the West of Scotland.

Answer: Day is the Governor, de Garmy is the Mayor, I am the Mayor, and French is the Mayor.

Rejected Volunteers in the St. George's Day Parade.

TOOWOOMBA FIREMEN'S PATRIOTIC WATER FIGHT.

Going into action.

Turning their fronts.

At close quarters.

Making the spray fly.

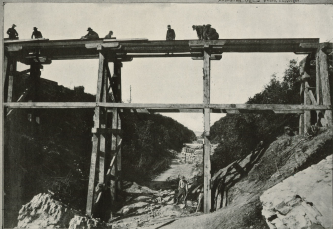

Over his guard.

The clearing stage (superintendent on balcony throwing "saves" fire).

WITH THE AUSTRALIANS ON THE FRENCH FRONT.

Associated Press—Photo Copyright

Australian Engineers building a timber trestle bridge alongside a destroyed brick arch bridge.

Back to the Ruins.

A French family hoist the tricolour over their home in a ruined village on the Somme.

Original from JULY 1919
Page 24

Tripoli, 50 miles north of Bagdad

Village of La Bar, 50 miles east of the Jordan

Cultivated country near Jaffa

A waiting house.

A Turkish dugout, bomb proof

St. George's Hospital, on the Jordan

PICTURES FROM PALESTINE.

See Page
29.

Interior of the Mosque of El Aksa, Jerusalem.

Looking out of the Turkish dugout shown opposite.

THE "TANK" IN ROMANIA.
Superintending a landing of heavy tanks at the company of the tank at the 10th and 11th (left) and 12th (right) tanks. — (London) photo.

LIEUT. A. B. GILKINSON.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gilkinson, of the 10th and 11th (left) and 12th (right) tanks. — (London) photo.

DET. J. B. GILKINSON.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gilkinson, of the 10th and 11th (left) and 12th (right) tanks. — (London) photo.

The British gun's tank and engine (the tank) has been captured before the photograph was taken.

Another view, showing the underside of the engine and tank.
A BRITISH GUN'S TANK AND ENGINE (the tank) has been captured before the photograph was taken.